DAVID STACY JOINS THE DAYTON ART INSTITUTE AS CFO AND DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS

(DAYTON, OHIO) – December 14, 2009 – The Dayton Art Institute has announced that David R. Stacy has joined the organization as Chief Financial Officer and Director of Operations.

Stacy brings more than 30 years of finance and accounting experience to The Dayton Art Institute, including extensive experience in the not-for-profit and health care industry. For the past 10 years he has been Chief Financial Officer of The Ohio Masonic Home, a not-for-profit retirement community located in Springfield, Ohio, where he oversaw accounting and finance, human resources, information technology, and financial assistance programs.

“We are pleased to be able to bring someone with David’s credentials and not-for-profit experience to our organization,” says Janice Driesbach, Director and CEO of The Dayton Art Institute. “He will be a valuable asset in helping guide The Dayton Art Institute in the coming years, and we welcome him to our family.”

Stacy is a graduate of Bowling Green State University, with an MBA from Wright State University. He resides in Kettering with his wife, Virginia.
